Groundhog Day

Friday, February 02nd, 2018

When Anton Chekhov saw the long winter, he saw a season bleak and dark and bereft of hope. Yet we know that winter is just another step in the cycle of life. Here among the people of Congregation Iyr Ha-Melech, basking in the warmth of their hearths and hearts, I can't imagine a better fate than a long and lustrous winter.

—Paraphrased from Pittsburgh TV Weatherman, Phil Connors—
