Study Session

Topic: The Beautiful Poetry of Rachel

Rachel Bluwstein [1890-1931]

Known simply in Hebrew as Rachel, with a long "a" and guttural "ch" - is a 'founding poet' of the Jewish homeland.

In simple yet heart-rending language, her poetry expresses the yearnings and joys of both kibbutz and urban life in pre-state Palestine. Her work has been widely published in both Hebrew and English, and has been part of Israel's education curriculum for decades. Contemporary artists have set Rachel's poems to music, and she has been honoured on Israeli postage and currency.

Our program will include an overview of Rachel's life together with an up-close exploration and discussion of several poems - in English translation - to be screen-shared.
